

Scholarship with a Difference

Corey J Brown Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship is for post-secondary students currently studying an undergraduate degree with a focus or intention of specializing in marine sciences or aquaculture. They would be enrolled at North Island College, Vancouver Island University or the University of Victoria.

There are two scholarships available with a value of $1,000 each. What makes this scholarship different is that if you are the recipient and in the final year of your program, you will be eligible for a graduation bonus. Upon completion of your program, you will be given a $1,000 graduation gift for keeping your commitment. Yes, $1,000 extra for finishing!

How to apply:

1. Complete and sign both pages of the Application Form (page 2 of this document).
2. Include your personal statement describing your principal interests and why you are eligible for the award(s).
3. Attach a letter of reference and sealed copy of your transcript that provides support for your application.
4. Return page 2 and the necessary attachments via mail to the address noted by April 30, 2010:
CJB Scholarship Fund
C/O P.O. Box 952
Campbell River, BC V9W 6Y4
5. Successful applicants will be contacted in June 2010. All applications will remain the property of the scholarship committee.

The scholarship must be used in the year they are awarded. The scholarship will be granted as a credit to your student account at the post secondary institute where you are enrolled. The $1,000 graduation bonus would be mailed directly to you upon proof of graduation from your program.

Who was Corey Brown?

Corey graduated from the University of Victoria with a Bachelor of Science. He worked in the aquaculture industry for almost 20 years. As a registered biologist, RPBio, he held positions managing farm sites as well as doing geographic survey work. He had a deep passion for the ocean and all its creatures.

This scholarship fund was generously funded by friends, family and the aquaculture community including a major contribution by Marine Harvest Canada.
